

Do not tamper with the current DO NOT CALL legislation. DO NOT give in to the telemarketeers who want to start calling individuals and businesses again. It is extremely invasive of the home and extremely annoying, especially as these calls so often interrupt dinner. It is extremely annoying for businesses who are dealing with customers and are constantly interrupted with telemarketers.